

ROMAN STETS

Professional piano player

Piano teacher

Concertmaster

PERSONALITY

Energetic musician with a diverse repertoire and strong sight-reading skills. I am constantly seeking new learning opportunities and enjoy performing as part of an ensemble to bring joy to others. Through my studies and work experience, I have developed the ability to connect with learners of all ages, particularly children, and create a positive and effective learning environment for piano playing. I have also gained experience using a programmatic pedagogical system with both children and adults. As a piano teacher, my ultimate goal is to help students develop their skills and achieve their musical goals. I can highlight my dedication to supporting and guiding students as they work towards their musical aspirations.
